

Landscape Ontario
HORTICULTURAL TRADES ASSOCIATION

London Chapter

Student Chapter

Landscape and Garden Plant Symposium

February 17th, 2007

9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Fanshawe College, London
1460 Oxford St. E

Enter off Second St – look for directional signs

Tickets are $10.00 and are available at the door

The London Chapter and the Fanshawe College LO Student Chapter - Horticulture & Design would like to present to you the following lectures:

- Landscape Lighting in the Garden – Anne Lesperance
- Attracting Birds and Butterflies to your Garden – Sabina Kennema
- Caring for and Growing Healthy Roses – Harry McGee
- The Elements of a Japanese Garden – Arthur Skolnik
- What's new – Trees & Shrubs for 2007 – Tom Intven/Jim Stinson
- Unusual and Dwarf Conifers in the Landscape – Jim Lounsbury

Paul Zammit from Plant World

CONTAINER GARDENING: FOUR SEASONS OF INTEREST

- With container gardening, it's easy to be adventurous even if you have just a few square feet of patio, deck, balcony or roof top. Join Paul Zammit the Jardiniere Extraordinaire as he shows us how to create seasonal containers for the four seasons.

Denis Flanagan - HGTV Personality

GARDENING TRENDS FOR 2007

- With each New Year comes new ideas and trends for the garden. Join Denis as he shows you how to find the 'wow factor' in combining styles, materials and textures in new and unusual ways.

Experts will also be available to answer your gardening questions on:

Tree and Shrub care Perennials Lawn care House plants IPM and more!

For more information please contact Wendy Harry 519-488-0818

Part of the proceeds will go to Alex's Butterfly Garden London Health Sciences Centre, www.alexsbutterflygarden.com

